CONDITIONS OF SALE

I.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute shall arise between two or more bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again and resold.

II.—No person to advance less than sixpence; above ten shillings, one shilling; above five pounds, half-a-crown, and so on in proportion.

III.—All lots are offered subject to the right to sell at a reserve price, and subject also to the right of the vendor or the auctioneer to bid in respect of such reserve. The auctioneers reserve the right to offer any lots in this Catalogue as one lot.

IV.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of residence (if required), and pay down a deposit of 30 per cent. in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased will be immediately put up again and resold.

V.—The lots to be taken away at the purchaser's expense within two days after the sale; in default of which Messrs. Hodgson & Co. will not hold themselves responsible for any lots lost or damaged, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

VI.—The books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any (except Manuscripts, Tracts in lots or volumes, Magazines, Reviews, and other Periodical Publications, which must be taken with all faults and errors of description) should prove defective, the purchasers will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ten days after the conclusion of the sale.

VII.—Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; and all lots uncleared within one week after the conclusion of the sale shall be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) on such resale shall be made good by the defaulters.

NOTE

Though the Shipdham Church Library, as included in this catalogue, is of no more than average size for a Library of this character, it has some interesting features. For instance, it was formed wholly in the XVIIth Century and contains very few books printed later than 1700, while with equally few exceptions the books are all bound in the original calf or vellum bindings.

Further interest arises from the presence of a number of bibliographical rarities, e.g., the First Editions of Pynson's Edition of the Royal Book, 1507, Milton's Lycidas, 1638, and the Areopagitica, 1644, as well as several extremely rare tracts relating to the early history of the American Colonies.

The Library is believed to have been founded by the Rev. Thomas Townshend, Rector of Shipdham from 1707 to 1754, and on his death in the latter year the Library passed to his successor, the Rev. Colby Bullock, and has remained at Shipdham ever since.

Unfortunately during the latter part of the XVIIIth and the early part of the XIXth centuries, the Library suffered sadly from neglect—doubtless owing to the fact that about two-thirds of the books are in Greek and Latin, and can have had practically no “readable” interest, so to speak, for the parishioners—and perhaps but little more for the clergy. At a still later date many of the books and tracts were seriously damaged owing to a faulty roof and other causes.

In view of the above statement it should be added that the sum realised by the sale of the Library will be used : (1) To augment the funds required to keep the fabric of the Church in good repair; (2) To form a library of modern books for the use and edification of the parishioners; and (3) To be used towards the reduction of the dilapidations assessments on the Rectory and premises.

FIRST DAY'S SALE

¶¶ An interesting MS. from the point of view of the history of the English stage, more particularly the period concerned with the University Latin Plays. These plays were not always printed, e.g., Leander and Scyros are only known from the above-described and other MSS. at Cambridge and elsewhere. The stage directions are of interest, and there are a few variations as between the MS. and printed copies—for instance the addition of a short Epilogus Anglice, at the end of Roxana. (See Cambridge Hist. of Eng. Lit., vol 6, 1910, ch. 12.)

RARE AMERICANA, TRAVEL, ETC.

- 122 Hamor (R.) A True Discourse of the Present Estate of Virginia . . . till the 18 of June, 1614. With a Relation of the Severall English Townes . . . the Peace with the Indians [and] The Christening of Powhatans daughter and her mariage with an English-man [A-K3, K4 being a blank. See Sabin no. 30120—a clean copy except for the verso of K3, which is dust soiled], sm. 4to, unbound
I. Beale for W. Welby 1615
- ¶¶The author of this very rare and interesting "Discourse" was Secretary, during its earliest years, of the colony of Virginia—the first of the original Colonies and first settled by the English in 1608. The "Discourse," though giving some account of the "Townes and Forts," as well as the fertility of the country, deals mainly with the relations—often fierce and revengeful—of the early Governors and the Indians, particularly their cruel chief Powhatan, and the romantic story of his daughter, the Princess Pocahontas.
- 123 Hughes (Lewes) A Letter, sent into England from the Summer Ilands [title, A3 to B4, wanting blank A1—apparently not known to Sabin—S.T.C. 13919], sm. 4to, unbound I. B. for William Welby 1615
- ¶¶This exceedingly rare tract contains a vivid description of the shipwreck on Bermuda in 1610, of the expedition under Sir George Somers, bound for Virginia. The writer was Chaplain to the newly found Colony, and he gives full though brief descriptions of the resources of the Island and lists of the food, utensils, clothes, etc., which subsequent emigrants from England should take.
- 124 WOOD (W.) NEW ENGLAND'S PROSPECT. A True, Lively, and Experimentall description of . . . New England: discovering the state of that Country, both as it stands to our new-come English Planters, and to the old Native Inhabitants [also a dictionary of their language], with the rare FOLDING MAP in fine state [A-M, in 4s—Sabin 105076—S.T.C. 25959], sm. 4to, unbound John Dawson 1639
- ¶¶A clean copy, with good margins, of this interesting early account of New England—a name given to it by Capt. John Smith, and comprising Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc. It is in two Parts, the first treating of the climate, natural history, etc., and the second being an account of the Indians—their manners, customs, arts, games, etc.
- 125 Whitbourne (Capt. R.) A Discourse and Discovery of New-Found-Land . . . Together with the Laying open of certaine Enormities committed by some that Trade to that Countrey . . . and likewise certaine Letters sent from that Countrey [A-T, in 4s, A4 being a blank—S.T.C. 25373, Sabin 103334—a few ll. very slightly stained, otherwise a fine clean copy], sm. 4to, unbound F. Kingston 1622
- 126 Whitfield (H.) Strength out of Weaknesse, Or a Glorious Manifestation of the further Progresse of the Gospel among the Indians of New-England [comprising Letters from John Eliot—editor of the Bay Psalm Book and translator of the Bible into the Indian dialect—and others, being the First Edition of no. 6 of the so-called "Indian Tracts." See Sabin 92799], sm. 4to, unbound (some ll. at beginning and end water-stained) M. Simmons for J. Blague 1652 variant readings from the text as printed in Professor Grierson's standard edition of Donne's Poems (Oxford 1912). For instance, the headings to the poems differ—Chansons and Canzonetts are not used—in a few cases lines are omitted, and words in the Oxford text varied, e.g., "snorted" for "slumbered," "luxurious" for "anxious," and "fondling" for "changeling." The only date mentioned is at the head of the Letter to Ben Jonson [probably not by Donne], No. 9°, 1603.
